

Dear Parent,

Please be advised of the following important information:

MOE (Ministry of Education) Books

We have begun handing out the MOE Books to our students and are excited to have every child receive theirs by tomorrow, 2.09.2025.

For our newly admitted students, we are working closely with our book supplier to ensure your child's school books arrive soon. Thank you for your patience in this regard.

Prophet Muhammad's Birthday

We are pleased to announce that EIS will commemorate the birth of Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) on Thursday, September 4, 2025. Students will engage in age-appropriate activities emphasizing his teachings and ideals of kindness, compassion, and oneness.

We invite all students to attend the celebration in modest and courteous clothes. The class teachers will provide additional details.

September 5, 2025 (Friday) has been formally declared a public holiday in observance of the birth of Prophet Muhammad, therefore students will get a three-day weekend.

We expect our pupils to be at school on time on Monday, September 8, 2025.

Parent Orientation and Curriculum Evening (Years 4 to Year 9)

Join us at EIS on 4th September 2025 (Thursday) for this special event, now scheduled from 3:00 PM to 5:00 PM. Simultaneous sessions will take place at your child's respective classroom.

We hope to see you there!

Parental Training on Education

We would love to hear from you, our parents, if you would benefit from a short online training session on Education. Our goal is to bring all school communications and your child's learning journey together in one place. With Education, you can stay up to date with the latest news, explore your child's school experiences, and so much more!

If you're interested in attending, kindly register at this link <https://forms.gle/Ja2k2QfjVmt4KA9>.

Uniform Sale

From Foundation Stage 2 (FS2) onwards, children are expected to wear their complete EIS school uniform as per their timetable.

Please be notified that the AJ Store is closed to parents today and tomorrow (1st and 2nd September) for month-end inventory. They will reopen on Wednesday, September 3, 2025, from 12 PM to 7 PM. Please wait for an update on uniform supply availability, which we will share with you shortly.

Thank you.
